Telegram from Mrs. Alexander Graham Bell to Dr. Alexander Graham Bell Received at Parker House, 70 Tremont St. & 60 School St., Boston, June 20, 1906. Dated, Washington, D. C. 20. To, Graham Bell.

If you love me at all please, please go to Baddeck, you can't do anything but worry me here. Motoring only aggravation now. Feel badly enough being a nuisance.

Please don't make me feel worse. My heart is in your work. Go on at once, start things and return later if necessary which it wont. But go now, just go and start things, let me have comfortable visit with Mamma. Shall enjoy it if you are in Baddeck.

McDermotte enroute Boston, Elsie leaves today, but don't have her travel with you. Am all right, will rejoice being with Mamma if I know you in Baddeck, much love.

Mabel.
